

Job Description - Tractor Driver - Market Rasen (PB6b)

Job summary

You will drive a tractor undertaking ground preparation for restocking of recently felled sites, using tractor mounted mulchers and hydraulic scarifiers. The role may include mowing of open areas, rides and track edges, using a range of tractor mounted implements as needed.

Key responsibilities & accountabilities

- Operate the district tractor to carry out a mulching and scarifying on recently felled woodland sites.
- Maintain a high standard meeting health and safety and environmental guidance.
- work effectively as part of a small team and responding quickly to unexpected work and issues raised by the Establishment forester.
- Maintain the tractor and implements to a high standard undertaking minor repairs as needed and working closing with mechanical engineering, reporting mechanical problems in a timely manager.
- represent Forestry England well when talking to contractors, customers, visitors, stakeholders and when working with volunteers.

And any other tasks, reasonably requested by your line manager.

Skills, knowledge & experience

Essential professional and technical experience

- Experience of operating a tractor.
- Experience of practical work in the countryside and a general understanding of forestry, nature conservation and countryside-related issues.
- Familiarity with a variety of tools used for maintaining the tractor and ability to demonstrate competence in their use.
- Full UK driving license.
- Experience with tractor mounted implements

Qualifications

Essential

- A GCSE in Maths and English or functional skills equivalent.

Desirable

- Qualification in first aid at work or willing to be suitably trained.
- NPTC forest machine operator's certificate in base machine (wheeled ridged).
- NPTC forest machine operator's certificate in mechanical flails and mulchers.